

He is Ever Near

Doy Moyer

Luke Moyer

1. When in the fear - ful land of doubt, I seek to know my place.
2. Am I a-lone to tread the road? A - lone to face the day?
3. "You can - not do this all a - lone," I hear Him gent - ly sigh.
4. So to my God a - gain I yield. Why did I ev - er fear?

Verses 1-3

In dread - ful long - ing, I cry out to see my Sav - ior's face.
Will I have strength to bear the load? Or give in to the fray?
"You have no strength to call your own; on Me you must re - ly."
He is my re - fuge and my shield, and

Verse 4

He is ev - er near.
